Services Division

ADULT PROTECTIVE SERVICES MISSION STATEMENT

To assist vulnerable adults, age 18 to 59, in addition to persons 60 years and older who are abused, neglected, exploited, isolated or abandoned by investigating, providing or arranging for services to alleviate and prevent further maltreatment while safeguarding their civil liberties.

The State of Nevada Aging and Disability Services Division provides Adult Protective Services for vulnerable adults, age 18-59, in addition to persons 60 years and older, collectively referred to as vulnerable adults. Adult Protective Services serves all of Nevada.

Vulnerable adult abuse is a crime - If the Aging and Disability Services Division, Adult Protective Services worker believes that a crime has been committed against a vulnerable adult, a referral is made to the appropriate law enforcement agency for possible investigation and prosecution.

Adult Protective Services Include:

Investigation

Evaluation

Arrangement/referral to other services

Protective services are provided if the individual is willing to accept these services.

Who can report a case of vulnerable adult abuse? Any person may report an incident of abuse if they have reasonable cause to believe that a vulnerable adult has been abused, neglected, exploited, isolated or abandoned. All information received as a result of a report is confidential.

Mandatory reporters must make the report immediately after the event, but no later than 24 hours after there is reason to believe that a vulnerable adult has been abused, neglected, exploited, isolated or abandoned.

Mandatory Reporters include, but are not limited to:

- Medical Professionals
- Employees of Hospitals and Home Health Agencies
- Social Workers
- Coroners
- Law Enforcement Employees
- Adult or Juvenile Probation Officers
- Department of Health and Human Services' Employees
- Mortuary or Funeral Home Employees
- Employees of the Facilities Providing Care for Older or Vulnerable Persons
- Financial Institutions

Reports must be made to either:

- Aging and Disability Services Division (ADSD)
- Any Police Department or Sheriff's Office

If a vulnerable adult is in immediate danger, the local police, sheriff's office or emergency medical service should be contacted. If the person is not in immediate danger, the report should be made via one of the designated phone numbers.
